HOUSING AND DINING ANNOUNCEMENTS

On October 11, 2021, we celebrated the first national Indigenous Peoples' Day in the United States in lieu of Columbus Day. President Joseph Biden declared it as a day to honor the resilience and contributions of Indigenous peoples to our Nation. It is also a day to acknowledge "the painful history of wrongs and atrocities inflicted on Tribal Nations and Indigenous communities."

Indigenous Peoples' Day has been adopted by many cities across the nation. In 1992, Berkeley, CA was the first city to rename Columbus Day as Indigenous Peoples' Day. It is a paid state holiday in Alaska, Iowa, Maine, Minnesota, New Mexico, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, South Dakota, Vermont, and Wisconsin. Other states, including California, observe Indigenous Peoples' Day via proclamation.

In recognition of Indigenous People's Day, we'd like to highlight the land acknowledgement we use here at UC Davis. This acknowledgment formally recognizes and pays respect to the indigenous people who once lived where UC Davis stands today. It is intended to raise awareness regarding the enduring relationship between indigenous people and the land. It states,

We would like to take a moment to acknowledge the land on which we are gathered.

For thousands of years, this land has been the home of Patwin [PUTT-win] people.

Today, there are three federally recognized Patwin tribes: Cachil Dehe [CATCH-ill DEE-HEE] band of Wintun [WIN-tune] Indians of the Colusa Indian Community, Kletsel Dehe [KLET-SELL DEE-HEE] Wintun Nation, and Yocha Dehe [YO-chuh DEE-HEE] Wintun Nation.

The Patwin people have remained committed to the stewardship of this land over many centuries. It has been cherished and protected, as elders have instructed the young through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands.

More information, resources, and support for Native and Indegenous students are available at the Native American Academic Student Success Center (NAASSC).

Learn How to Sort Your Waste within Housing!

This week, our team is ‘talking trash’! Stop on by tabling this week in the Dining Commons to learn more about the waste streams, how to properly sort your waste in Student Housing and even win a reusable utensil set!

- Monday October 11, 6:30-8pm @ Segundo DC
- Wednesday October 13, 5:30-7:30pm @ Tercero DC

Save the date: Resident Garden Scavenger Hunt

October 20, 5:30-6:30pm

At the Resident Garden @ Segundo (Between Bixby Hall and the Segundo DC, find a map online). Explore the Resident Garden, meet other people, and learn how you can get involved in gardening! Open to all Student Housing residents.

Share your opinion and enter to win a prize!

UC Davis Sustainability and Student Housing & Dining Services wants to hear from you!

We are gearing up for a reusable utensil campaign (complete with utensil set giveaways) next year, and would like to gather some information from campus users on this topic. Whether or not you own or use reusable utensils while on the go, we'd love your feedback! It only takes a few minutes to fill out the reusable utensil survey. Respondents will also be entered into raffle drawings for prizes--multiple winners each week!

Get Involved with Sustainability

Sign-up for the weekly sustainability and nutrition newsletter written by students, for students. The newsletter includes information on upcoming sustainability and nutrition events just for Student Housing residents, tips for sustainable living, the latest in evidence-based nutrition, easy and delicious recipes, and on-campus job and internship opportunities!

MIDTERM PREPARATION

Midterms are coming! Here are some tips for getting through this midterm season!

BEFORE THE EXAM

- Start studying a few days or weeks before the exam instead of just the night before
- Space out study sessions and give yourself breaks
- Review learning goals/objectives and spend more time on topics you are unsure about
- Form study groups to teach and test each other

DURING THE EXAM

- If allowed, skim through the exam to see what you know and don't know
- Flag questions that you're having trouble with to come back to later
- Stay calm and take deep breaths. You've got this!

AFTER THE EXAM

- Debrief with your TA or professor to understand which questions you missed and why you missed them
- Reevaluate your study habits to see what was helpful for you and what you can improve on

How Peer Mentors can help you

- Ask your PM for study tips/where they like to study
- PMs can let you know where to find tutoring and extra help

Still have questions or need support? Meet with your Peer Mentor or email reshallacademics@ucdavis.edu

DINING PROGRAMS

Chef Dinner Special

October 20

Segundo DC

Chef Laiza is well known for her street food fusion flavors here on campus. For her next special she is bringing you a roasted pork belly drizzled with an orange teriyaki glaze topped with a ginger scallion slaw together with her spicy Bang Bang aioli all nestled in a toasted hoagie roll. Served with a side of fresh and funky kimchi Broccoli salad. So good you have to say it twice BANG BANG!

CAMPUS PROGRAMS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

There's a great opportunity for UC Davis affiliates (anyone with an (at)ucdavis.edu email) to register for FREE for the Global Conference on Sustainability in Higher Education, a virtual conference streaming live October 12-14, thanks to a sponsorship by UC Davis Sustainability. Learn more about how students, faculty and staff around the world are improving sustainability at their institutions. There are many interesting tracks of focus including student organizing and activism, racial equity and social justice, culture and communications, and more. (You can register through October 14 for access to on-demand through December 31.)

Gaming Support Group

Hello! UC Davis Counseling Services is currently recruiting members to join the Gaming Support Group for FALL 2021.

What this is –

Connect with other videogame enthusiasts at a deeper level beyond your gamer identity! Join to learn more about yourself, develop skills to have a healthier relationship with games, develop and refine communication skills, engage in meaningful dialogue, and learn to seek and offer support from one another.

Topics discussed may include, but not limited to: how your interest in games developed, what you enjoy about video games, your "relationship" with games, struggles within competitive multiplayer games, gaming and mental health.

WHO – UC Davis students enrolled in Fall Quarter interested in joining group! Space is limited to 8 people.

TIME – Group Zoom format, weekly meetings on Mondays from 2:15-3:30 PM from 10/11/21 to 11/29/21.

Commitment – Attend all meetings for the quarter.

How do I sign up?

Contact UC Davis Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871, have your student ID ready, request to be screened for the Gaming Support Group, and a counselor will later contact you to assess whether you will be a good candidate to join group. Remember that space is limited!
