Flu Season is Here - It's Time to Get Your Flu Vaccine!
UC Davis SHCS Medical Services urges all students to receive the seasonal vaccine. The seasonal flu vaccine protects against three influenza viruses that research indicates will be most common during the upcoming season.

SHCS Medical Services offers both seasonal flu shots and intranasal vaccine (also known as FluMist) as options for seasonal flu vaccination. Intranasal vaccine is administered as a quick mist sprayed in each nostril and is an alternative for individuals who do not like needles. Students who are interested can attend a flu vaccination clinic (when available), come in during our Walk-In Vaccination hours or if the students’ schedule conflicts with walk-in hours they can contact our Appointment Desk (530) 752-2349 to schedule an appointment. Students who have questions can contact our Advice Nurse (530) 752-2349 to discuss vaccination options.

Join us in celebrating International Education Week around the world from November 16 - 20, 2015! This joint initiative of the U.S. Departments of State and Education celebrates the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide. Internships and Job Opportunities

Student Affairs Marketing and Communications (SAMC)
Community Resource Guide Intern
Hours: 10-20/week | Job Duration: October 2015-April 2016 | Pay: $9.50/hour
Student Affairs Marketing and Communications (SAMC), lead marketing and communications office for the Division of Student Affairs, is hiring eight community resource guide interns to work on student-focused publications for first-year freshmen, first-year transfer and continuing students.

If you enjoy writing, researching content, editing and interviewing students please submit your resume and a writing sample through Aggie Job Link. Search for this position with Aggie Job Link ID #801394.

Job Description
Lead the coordination and production of student-focused publications for first-year freshmen, first-year transfer and continuing students. Under the direction of SAMC professional staff, the intern will help develop the creative concept and participate in all aspects of creating the book. This includes, but is not limited to, developing the overarching theme, researching content, interviewing students, gathering student profiles and pictures, and writing and editing.

Responsibilities
Under general supervision from professional SAMC staff:
1. Take a leadership role in the development and production for ONE of the following publications:
   a. African-American Student Resource Guide (also known as the "Black Pages")
   b. Chicano/Latino Student Resource Guide (also known as the "Brown Pages")
   c. Southeast Asian Student Resource Guide (also known as the "SEA Pages")
   d. Middle Eastern South Asian Student Resource Guide (also known the "MESA guide")
   e. Native American Student Resource Guide (also known as the "NAS guide")
2. Develop cohesive theme for guide and related messaging appropriate for reaching UC Davis students.
3. Write original content, update content and solicit and coordinate submissions from other community members.
4. Coordinate and schedule original photography. Research and gather existing photos to refresh content.
5. Identify students for profiles, coordinate photography, conduct interviews and write content.
6. Collaborate with SAMC staff and fellow students to produce book and achieve publication goals.

UC Davis Telephone Outreach Program (TOP)
Student On-Campus Job Opportunity | Now - - November 26, 2015 | Sunday - Thursday 5:45 - 9:00PM | Annual Fund Building | Pay: $10.00/hour | Aggie Job Link number: 779965

The UC Davis Telephone Outreach Program (TOP) is a unit of the UC Davis Annual Fund. The TOP is a student outreach program which builds relationships and gains financial support for the university through telephone fundraising. The TOP helps provide philanthropic support for UC Davis scholarships, faculty support, research initiatives, and academic programs to enrich student experiences. TOP student fundraisers call on behalf of the university, colleges, schools, and units to connect alumni, parents, and friends to the university and to maximize the success of UC Davis fundraising.

We're hiring! We are looking for students to conduct outreach for UC Davis. As a student caller, you will contact alumni, parents, and friends to educate and inform them about campus events and the importance of annual support. This is a great opportunity for you to impact our university! Contact us ASAP to join our team and be included in our next training event.

Qualifications
* Eligible for US and student employment.
* Strong oral and written command of English.
* Have an enthusiastic and positive attitude, love talking with people who have a connection to UC Davis, and enjoy working in a team environment.
* Effective negotiation, oral, and interpersonal communication skills, including political acumen.
* Build and maintain effective working relationships at all organizational levels and with outside constituencies while working in a fast-paced environment.
* Ability to learn computer programs quickly.
* Attention to detail and ability to maintain confidentiality.
