Sustainable Student Housing

Spring break is a week away! If you are planning a trip home consider taking home items you are not actively using such as seasonal clothing, the skateboard you thought you needed, keepsakes you have collected...well, you get the idea. Why you ask? The end of spring quarter will be here before you know it and the less you have to pack up during finals week the more time you will have to study! Also, you most likely have accumulated more than what you came with and by planning ahead you avoid having to leave items behind at the last minute because you do not have room to transport everything.

Are you passionate about sustainability, outgoing, and enjoy interacting with your peers? Student Housing is hiring Sustainability Programmers for spring quarter and next year. The position is part-time and paid for full-time students (minimum of 6 units per quarter). Visit Aggie Job Link #806278 for details.

Interested in getting involved is sustainability? Sign-up for the ListServ and get weekly updates on sustainability events in Student housing. Send an email to sustainablehousing@ucdavis.edu and put Sustainability ListServ in the subject line.

2nd Year Housing Guarantee
Students interested in renewing with Student Housing for a second year should complete the online application and submit a reservation fee of $500 by March 18, 2016 to guarantee their space.

NOTE Second year students that need a special accommodation for on-campus housing should complete and submit the Special Accommodations form.

If you have any questions about this process, we encourage you to email us at studenthousing@ucdavis.edu

Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition

The Jan Shrem and Maria Manetti Shrem Museum of Art is opening in the fall of 2016, and we are eager to engage students in working with us on shaping our programs. To create an opportunity to hear the student voice, we are launching the Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition in January 2016.

The Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition is a community of students that gathers around pizza once a month to discuss ideas about student events, upcoming programs, and the possibilities of forming a Student Advisory Board when the museum opens. There will also be an online forum where students who cannot make the face-to-face meetings can contribute their opinions, and topics can be discussed more in depth.

To learn more about the Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition, visit our Facebook page and online forum.
If you have further questions, please send an email to our Coordinator of Student Engagement, Carmel Dor, at cdor@ucdavis.edu.

The Manetti Shrem Museum will champion the legacy of UC Davis’ art department founders, exploring their enthusiasm for interdisciplinary practices. We welcome your help in establishing a museum for our university that reflects this interdisciplinary mission. Please spread the word by encouraging students in any of your classes to join the coalition.

Sorority and Fraternity Life Updates

Unrecognized Groups

Some organizations that were once recognized fraternities or sororities at UC Davis may attempt to continue to operate despite having lost recognition from the University. Any operation of these groups is considered underground activity and is not sanctioned by the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life. Therefore, students should carefully consider their potential student conduct record before associating with an unrecognized group.

These organizations have had their recognition revoked by the institution for various reasons, including such things as hazing, alcohol and drug abuse, risk management violations, and failure to comply with University policies and expectations. These organizations have in almost all cases also had their charter suspended or revoked by their inter/national organization because they were not upholding fraternal values and were engaging in risky behaviors that endangered the members and other students.

For a complete list of recognized groups please visit the UC Davis Sorority and Fraternity Life Chapter Pages website. If you have a question please contact the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life 530-752-4606.

Biology Academic Success Center Co-Director Looking for Assistant
A blind and diabetic UC Davis Staff Member Requests Your Assistance.

Dr. Matthew Weed is the new Co-Director of the Biology Academic Success Center.

I am both blind and diabetic and need to find many people who can help with a very simple blood glucose monitoring and insulin measurement routine that is impossible for me to carry out independently as a result of my combined disabilities. I am already looking for people who can help this spring vacation and during the summer.

I must carry out this routine every day at 7:30 AM and at 6:00 PM. I will need assistance to do so at my rental house (currently 516 E St in Davis) and also at my office in the Sciences Lab Building (noon Monday through Friday). Your help will be greatly appreciated in accomplishing this essential task. Previous medical training is not needed and many non-science people have assisted me over the last 25 years. English fluency is essential in communicating about dosage measurements while doing the protocol and about obstacles if acting as a sighted guide.

The routine takes about ten minutes once you're comfortable with it. Your help will make it possible for me to be healthy and able to focus on doing my work. Depending on when you help in the day (aka mornings noon or evening), I may need help to or from work which may extend the amount of time we spend together to about an hour.

Traditionally, volunteers commit to help me at one meal time per week. This is done to ensure that people know when to be available and to protect their time. A pool of reserve people provides back-up should short term conflicts arise. Should you feel that this role is best for you, I will greatly appreciate your willingness to help in this way.

As training is ongoing, If you are interested, please contact my coordinator Alexa Keller, or me so we can plan a training session (duration 30 minutes) for you to watch an experienced person perform the routine. If you are comfortable with what you've seen, a second training session will be organized to let you do what you saw being done the first time with an experienced person watching you.

More than 800 people have helped me at five universities. Felicia Garcia, Tina Yeghiayan, Sydney Hansen, and Samuel Deck are UC Davis students who will be happy to give you their perspectives on helping me.

You can learn more about me by watching the 5 minute video or looking at my website.

You may also want to watch this 10 minute training video showing Liz Min, a graduate student at Yale doing my med protocol last fall in New Haven.

Please note that if you are a major in the College of Biological Sciences or expect to major there, I cannot accept your assistance due to potential conflict of interest.

Thanks in advance for your willingness to give me this essential help.

Matthew Weed
