One Cup Challenge
Next week, during week 4 of the One Cup Challenge, the campaign is hosting a speaker event on Tuesday, May 24 in Wellman 106. Come hear from our very own UC Davis Alumni - who are utilizing their skills, ranging from design, technology, education, and organizing - to reduce waste in their communities. And, as always, you can still pledge here and come see the One Cup Challenge at the UC Davis Farmers Market, which is at 11am-1:30pm.

But before week 3 of Challenge comes to an end, let's hear who has taken home prizes! The following 5 people took home beautiful, glass Numi Tea teapots with flowering tea blossoms: Lucinda Amador, Tiffany Le, Hannah Trumbull, Grace Moore and Leah Brewster. Congratulations everyone! Stay tuned for this week's winners, announced in next week's Aggie Reader.

STUDENT FOCUS GROUPS ON LIBRARY SPACE PLANNING

The Library is the academic hub of the University and its students – a gathering place, a space for both quiet study and collaboration, a space for deep thought and discovery. Help us reimagine how the Library's physical space, technologies, and services can best meet the needs of the UC Davis student community in the 21st century.

Student Focus Groups on Library Space Planning
Monday, May 23
Shields Library, First-Floor Conference Room

- Post Docs, 9:30-10:30
- Undergraduate Students, 10:30-11:30
- Graduate students, 11:30-12:30

Please sign up at https://www.lib.ucdavis.edu/ul/about/spaceplanning/getinvolved.html#focusgroup; we'll confirm your attendance. Food and drink supplied.

This Visioning Phase of the Library Space Planning Process, which will take place throughout 2016, lays the foundation for the development of more detailed concepts for design of renovations and reconfigurations. For

The Apocalypse! No Electricity! "The Simpsons?"

In the wake of a post-apocalyptic event, a group of survivors gathers together and tries to recall an episode from television's "The Simpsons." From their recollections, the tale evolves into the foundation of a new theatrical and musical art form - complete with commercials. Playwright Anne Washburn has taken this concept to hilarious heights in her wickedly funny "Mr. Burns, A Post-Electric Play," billed as a dark comedy with music.

Featuring music by Michael Friedman and lyrics by Washburn, the innovative contemporary work will be presented by the UC Davis Department of Theatre and Dance in Wright Hall's Main Theatre Thursday through Saturday May 19-21 and 26-28 at 8 p.m. and Sundays May 22 and 29 at 2 p.m.

Directed by visiting artist, Mindy Cooper.

Read the production's press release for more details.

The market is an on-campus extension of the Davis Farmers Market with a mission to increase UC Davis students’ access to fresh fruits and vegetables. See you at the market

UC Davis Sorority and Fraternity Life
Unrecognized Groups
Some organizations that were once recognized fraternities or sororities at UC Davis may attempt to continue to operate despite having lost recognition from the University. Any operation of these groups is considered underground activity and is not sanctioned by the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life. Therefore, students should carefully consider their potential student conduct record before associating with an unrecognized group.

These organizations have had their recognition revoked by the institution for various reasons, including such things as hazing, alcohol and drug abuse, risk management violations, and failure to comply with University policies and expectations. These organizations have in almost all cases also had their charter suspended or revoked by their inter/national organization because they were not upholding fraternal values and were engaging in risky behaviors that endangered the members and other students.

For a complete list of recognized groups please visit the UC Davis Sorority and Fraternity Life Chapter Pages website. If you have a question please contact the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life 530-752-4606.

UC Davis Summer Sessions
Registration Now Open

Stay on track for graduation with Summer Sessions at UC Davis!
We offer about 700 courses in two six-week sessions, so you can get the courses you need to get ahead on your degree. Summer is a great time to focus on one or two challenging courses without the distractions of the regular year. Many classes are smaller, to help. Continuing UC Davis students don't need to apply - just register during your pass time!

Students eligible for financial aid will be packaged when you register. See summer-sessions.ucdavis.edu for details on dates, fees, registration and courses.

UC Undergraduate Experience Survey, prizes given out weekly!

Do you have anything to say about UC Davis and you wish you could tell someone and get some cool stuff like cash? Now's your chance! Take the UC Undergraduate Experience Survey (or UCUES for short). You should have gotten an email sent from the President of ASUCD reminding you to take the survey. Last time UC Davis students took the survey, we came in SECOND in response rate for all of the UC campuses. Can we come in first this year? Take the survey and you'll not only be telling UC's administrators what's going on at UC Davis, but we can also get some bragging rights to be the most responsive UC in California!

Carbon Neutrality Initiative Student Engagement Fellowships
2016-17 Carbon Neutrality Initiative Student Engagement Fellowships, UC Davis
The University of California, a national leader in sustainability, has launched the Carbon Neutrality Initiative (CNI) with an aim of emitting net zero greenhouse gases from its activities, buildings and vehicle fleets by 2025. UC Davis is committed to teaching and research which explores climate change solutions, expanding its energy efficiency efforts and increasing its use of renewably sourced energy, and undertaking other endeavors to achieve this goal. In order to reach neutrality, it will be critical to engage the entire UC Davis community.

To encourage student engagement in the CNI and general sustainability efforts at UC Davis, and to support the important work that students are doing to advance sustainable practices on the UC Davis campus, up to four selected students will be awarded $3,000 each in the form of fellowship funds for two research-based fellowships and two engagement-based fellowships. All students (undergraduate, graduate and professional) are encouraged to apply.

To be eligible for consideration students must continue to be enrolled through spring quarter 2017 and be in good academic standing. Engagement projects must be completed by June 30, 2017.

All of the awardees are expected to work with the UC Davis Office of Environmental Stewardship and Sustainability. The appointed fellows will serve as the CNI student engagement liaisons for UC Davis. Responsibilities include:

- Learn about UC climate and sustainability programs, policies and opportunities to advance the goal of student engagement in the CNI and other sustainability programs
- Promote student awareness of the CNI and campus student fellow projects.
- Network and/or help assist with publicizing campus events related to sustainability activities.
- Support efforts to rollout outcomes from the GCLC and CNI working groups.
• Join monthly CNI Fellows system-wide conference calls.
• Attend local in-person GCLC leadership meetings.
• Provide information to the GCLC Student Engagement Working Group about the progress of student engagement efforts, student feedback, and needs on campuses.
• Contribute regularly to the GCLC Student Representative Blog and other communication platforms.

The expectation is that the awardees will provide a minimum of 8 hours per week of effort towards research and/or engagement activities in collaboration with other students and staff working on sustainability and carbon neutrality initiatives. The engagement fellows will contribute through planning and enacting activities, presentations, campus events tabling; creating various outreach materials; and communicating through social media and other student engagement platforms, among other activities.

Applications are due on or before 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, May 24, 2016. Applications must be complete and include the required three elements specified. Submit completed application as a single PDF file to: sustainability@ucdavis.edu.

Application Instructions for the Engagement Fellowships:

1. Cover letter (indicate you are applying for the Engagement Fellowship)
   • Explain your interest in the Carbon Neutrality Initiative and other sustainability efforts at UC Davis.
   • Describe successful communication, outreach and engagement efforts you've conducted.
2. Résumé or curriculum vitae (CV)
3. Transcripts (an Advising Transcript is fine)

Application Instructions for the Research Fellowships:

1. Cover letter (Indicate that you are applying for the Research Fellowship)
   • Explain your interest in the Carbon Neutrality Initiative and other sustainability efforts at UC Davis.
   • Describe the research project you propose and how it will benefit UC Davis and/or the whole UC.
2. Résumé or curriculum vitae (CV)

Transcripts (an Advising Transcript is fine)

Four Smoke and Tobacco Free Fellowships
Fellowships for the 2016-2017 academic year now open!

Four Smoke and Tobacco Free fellowships of $12,000 will be awarded across the University of California system. See attached for specific details.

Selected fellows will conduct a smoke and tobacco free project or relevant research project to be completed within the one-year duration of the award. Recipients of these awards will begin their effort on July 1, 2016.

Examples of types of projects or research include:

• Campus awareness and engagement
  • Creative projects that engage the campus community and raise awareness of tobacco and nicotine products and their impact on health and the environment
• Wellness and health
  • Projects that target reductions in smoking and tobacco use among students, staff, faculty, patients and/or communities
• UC smoke and tobacco free policy enforcement
  • Projects that design and pilot feasible and effective enforcement strategies for the UC smoke and tobacco free policy
• Basic science projects
  • Projects focused on physical, biological or psychological characteristics of tobacco and nicotine products, their use, and their effects

Applications due at 12pm, Wednesday May 25th.

Let's Talk About Mental Health - Friday, May 20 | 9-11 a.m. | UC Davis Conference Center Conference Room A | Click Here for PDF Flyer | Click Here to RSVP
LET’S TALK ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH

An Introduction to Resources and Communication Skills to effectively engage, listen and refer.

Friday, May 20th, 9am-11am
UC Davis Conference Center
Conference Room A

Fostering a stigma-free culture at UC Davis is a community effort. We invite students, staff and faculty to this unique opportunity to talk about mental health and begin to develop the communications skill set needed to effectively serve as an advocate for early intervention and prevention.

Through our partnership with various mental health professionals, our goal is for participants to learn about our various campus resources and better understand mental health and stigma. In addition, participants will have the opportunity to hear from the perspectives of students, staff and faculty through a moderated panel where questions are encouraged.
