Advising and Tutoring Updates

Carpenter at anna@cahouse.org, or call (530) 753-2000

2019 school year. Rent is $745 per month.

retreats, workshops and weekly community meals included! We are now accepting applications for the 2018–

no more and get a gift* containing seven of our best products that you can mix and match. From the Brighten

Annual Xfinity Watchathon

Start Fresh With a Body Composition Test

Get Ready at the Grad Fair

Sexual Assault Awareness Month Events

balance to your plate this quarter. Sessions are 15 minutes long and are open to both students and Campus quick, easy and private assessment.

this quarter. No matter what your health goals are, let our certified personal trainers help you get started with a open to all students and Campus Recreation members.

special attention to registration periods:
to everyone. To secure spots, be sure to register early though!

$50–$100!
Deadline: April 27, 2018

need your help!

aggie tradition.

talents and passions. It is only with the support of everyone, including you, that we can continue this timeless

On Saturday, April 21, our campus will celebrate its Grad Fair.

We'll have informed staff members, portrait photographers and plenty of great prizes, accomplishments and get ready for your big day by learning about all the goods and services we have available

When: Friday, April 20, 10 AM–2 PM

How to Get Involved in Research
Please review the program’s requirements and deadlines thoroughly before applying.

For more information and/or to submit an application to be an intern, an opportunity to gain hands-on experience supporting WRRC functions, developing programs, and providing

The Women’s Resources & Research Center

Newsletter that gets sent out to over 8,000 students. Also, this position is responsible for creating graphics and space strives to create dialogue pertaining to specific topics, issues, and events related to LGBTQIA+

Within the queer/trans people of color (QTPOC) community, the saying ‘What’s the Tea?’ means what’s the latest

and the anytime during open volunteer hours. All residents of

Do You Know What This Edible Flower Is? Come to

Where: Tercero, Olive Main
When: Wednesday, April 25, 6:00–7:30 PM

Free Cooking Demo Workshop With Free Food!

Join Segundo,
Do your part to make the earth a little

Volunteer with us at the Student Farm online!

Free samples and recipe cards to take home. All materials supplied, limited quantities available.

classes or workshops

Aggie Job Link

is racing towards us, and we want to see you there! Gather your friends and for more information!

Volunteer with us at the Student Farm

To stay in the loop on campus recreational programs and activities,

Within the queer/trans people of color (QTPOC) community, the saying ‘What’s the Tea?’ means what’s the latest

Within the queer/trans people of color (QTPOC) community, the saying ‘What’s the Tea?’ means what’s the latest