ASUCD Housing Day

Tuesday, January 26
10 AM - 3 PM | ARC Pavilion |
asucd.ucdavis.edu/units/housing-day

Are you a student looking for a place to live next year? Looking for housing for the new school year can be a daunting task but ASUCD’s Housing Day can help ease your search! Housing Day is an event run by ASUCD’s Housing Advising for Undergraduate Students. Over 60 managers and representatives will come to the ARC Pavilion on campus to provide information about their particular apartment complexes. This will give students a unique opportunity to individually talk to multiple managers about their floor plans, prices and tour dates. The representatives will answer any questions pertaining to leases or the amenities that their individual complex offers.

This will be a fantastic opportunity for students to engage with the Davis community as well as learn more about the process of moving from student housing to off-campus living. There will even be a table for students to learn their renter's rights. Not only will this be an opportunity for learning about off-campus living but there will be many free promotional items and giveaways to take part in!

Academic Tip of the Week
The pass/no pass deadline is February 8, 2016. If you are unsure about how you will do in a class or don’t want to spend too much time working on it, taking the pass/no pass grading option is a possible solution to those situations. When you choose this option, the units for the class will count towards full-time standing and minimum progress as long as you earn a C- or higher. The actual grade you receive for the class will not affect your GPA. The amount of units and types of classes you can take pass/no pass depends on the college you're in. For more information visit the UC Davis General Catalog to check your college requirements regarding P/NP.

Office of Campus Community Relations
Wednesday, January 27 | 7 - 8 PM | UC Davis Comprehensive Cancer Center Auditorium

The Police Accountability Board will hold its quarterly public meeting from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 27, in the UC Davis Comprehensive Cancer Center Auditorium.

The independent board holds one public meeting in each quarter of the regular academic year. Each public session starts with board member introductions, and information about the board's purpose and how complaints can be filed. Then the board takes general comments and questions.

The board's work on specific complaints is confidential. Independent investigators assist the board, which has the task of making recommendations to the police chief regarding charges of officer misconduct.

The university established the board in May 2014 as a pilot project to develop and promote accountability, trust and communication between the campus community and the Police Department.

The board comprises representatives from these constituency groups: Academic Senate and Academic Federation, Staff Assembly, Graduate Student Association, ASUCD, Student Life and the UC Davis Health System.

Center for Leadership Learning

The Aggies Leading the Way! conference is designed to bring together undergraduates who are interested in leadership education and who aim to make a difference in their academic and social communities.

This year's conference theme is Sculpting Passion into Action. Through a variety of interactive workshops and large-group activities, students will be able to: 1) identify their individual passion and shape their own purpose, 2) recognize how their own passion and purpose connects and complements those of others, and 3) understand how molding a collective of individual passions contributes to creating meaningful change.

For more information visit the conference website.

Space is limited to 150 students! Register today!

UC Davis Equity Summit: Systems Change for Social Justice
March 8, 2016 | 4-9 PM | UC Davis Conference Center | Register by March 1, 2016

The sixth annual UC Davis Equity Summit is now accepting registrations and social justice award nominations at http://tinyurl.com/16equity.

The Equity Summit focuses on social justice and ways that students, staff, educators and the general public can create change. This year's keynote speaker will be Dr. Pedro A. Noguera, one of America's most powerful voices on equity in public education. Dr. Noguera is a dynamic speaker whose work addresses teaching, school support systems and ways in which our schools are influenced by socioeconomic conditions. The event includes experts from a variety of disciplines who will guide discussions on equity and social change.

The Equity Summit includes a book-signing, dinner, music and the presentation of social justice awards to community members who have helped advance access, equality and opportunity. Learn more about the UC Davis Equity Summit at http://tinyurl.com/16equity or by contacting Dr. Vajra Watson at vmwatson@ucdavis.edu.

Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition
The Jan Shrem and Maria Manetti Shrem Museum of Art is opening in the fall of 2016, and we are eager to engage students in working with us on shaping our programs. To create an opportunity to hear the student voice, we are launching the Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition in January 2016.

The Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition is a community of students that gathers around pizza once a month to discuss ideas about student events, upcoming programs, and the possibilities of forming a Student Advisory Board when the museum opens. There will also be an online forum where students who cannot make the face-to-face meetings can contribute their opinions, and topics can be discussed more in depth.

To learn more about the Manetti Shrem Museum Student Coalition, visit our Facebook page and online forum. If you have further questions, please send an email to our Coordinator of Student Engagement, Carmel Dor, at cdor@ucdavis.edu.

The Manetti Shrem Museum will champion the legacy of UC Davis' art department founders, exploring their enthusiasm for interdisciplinary practices. We welcome your help in establishing a museum for our university that reflects this interdisciplinary mission. Please spread the word by encouraging students in any of your classes to join the coalition.
UC Davis Army ROTC

Get Involved
Army ROTC is the perfect opportunity to help you succeed. Through elective classes, labs and field training exercises, you will receive firsthand experience on what it takes to lead and motivate others, and how to conduct missions as an Officer in the Army, Army Reserve or Army National Guard. The program provides the skills and experience that will help empower success in any competitive environment. Upon graduation and completion of Army ROTC, you will earn the title of Second Lieutenant and equipped with a set of leadership and decision-making skills that ultimately will make you a valuable commodity in any professional industry.

Scholarships are available and are awarded based on students' merit and grades. Additional allowances will help pay for books and fees. Army ROTC even offers a stipend of up to $5,000 a year. To learn more about the requirements and other information, please contact Mr. Gary Suen at RM 127 at Hickey Gym or at ghsuen@ucdavis.edu.

Sorority and Fraternity Life Updates

Sigma Phi Epsilon - The Balanced Man Scholarship

Sigma Phi Epsilon idealizes the philosophy of Balance; and in order for one to be successful in all aspects of life one must do so with a Sound Mind in a Sound Body. In addition to these values and ideals, Sigma Phi Epsilon across the nation has endeavored to become a partner in higher education, which is how this scholarship was founded.

This scholarship is available to all current and incoming students at UC Davis. There is absolutely no obligation to join the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity before, during, or after the scholarship process.

The Balanced Man Scholarship is a great opportunity for gentlemen who thought their scholarship opportunities were over. This year we will be awarding $750 to a first place winner and $250 each to two second place winners. On top of this, finalist will be invited to a scholarship banquet in the middle of Spring quarter.

Please click the following link to fill out the application: http://sigepdavis.wix.com/sigepdavis#1scholarships/k4md5
Unrecognized Groups

Some organizations that were once recognized fraternities or sororities at UC Davis may attempt to continue to operate despite having lost recognition from the University. Any operation of these groups is considered underground activity and is not sanctioned by the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life. Therefore, students should carefully consider their potential student conduct record before associating with an unrecognized group.

These organizations have had their recognition revoked by the institution for various reasons, including such things as hazing, alcohol and drug abuse, risk management violations, and failure to comply with University policies and expectations. These organizations have in almost all cases also had their charter suspended or revoked by their inter/national organization because they were not upholding fraternal values and were engaging in risky behaviors that endangered the members and other students.

For a complete list of recognized groups please visit the UC Davis Sorority and Fraternity Life Chapter Pages website. If you have a question please contact the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life 530-752-4606.
