

Waste Guide

UC DAVIS
STUDENT HOUSING
AND DINING SERVICES

Solano Park residents are responsible for emptying their apartment waste. Keep this guide handy and refer to as needed.

Compost, Recycling & Landfill

- ✓ Take to the nearest waste enclosure
- ✓ Compost collection at enclosures 1 & 2 on map

Reusables

- ✓ Donate gently used items to the Aggie Reuse Store or a local thrift store.

eWaste & Household Hazardous Waste

- ✓ Visit facilities.ucdavis.edu/utilities/solid-waste

Bulky Items (furniture, mattresses, etc.)

- ✓ If an item cannot be donated, it can be taken to the Yolo County Landfill (fee may be imposed depending on the item).
- ✓ Do not leave in waste enclosure.

See reverse side for sorting tips

Contact us @ shds.sustainability@ucdavis.edu

Visit us @ housing.ucdavis.edu/waste

Sort it out!

Recycling

Containers must be emptied of liquid and food residue

- ✓ Aluminum, steel, & tin cans
- ✓ Glass bottles & jars
- ✓ White & colored paper
- ✓ Magazines & newspapers
- ✓ Paperboard (e.g. Cereal box)
- ✓ Plastic containers identified with

Compost

- ✓ Liquid & food waste
- ✓ Compostable paper cups & food containers
- ✓ Compostable plastic & wood utensils
- ✓ Food soiled pizza boxes
- ✓ Compostable plastic containers identified with

Reusables

Gently used:

- ✓ School supplies
- ✓ Books
- ✓ Clothing & accessories
- ✓ Art & craft materials
- ✓ Small working electronics
- ✓ Check with your local thrift store for a complete list

Landfill

- ✓ Packing Foam/Styrofoam™ identified with
- ✓ Plastic bags & film
- ✓ Food wrappers
- ✓ Plastic utensils & straws
- ✓ Soup & beverage cartons
- ✓ Empty aerosol cans

Electronic Waste (eWaste)

- ✓ Batteries
- ✓ Inkjet cartridges
- ✓ Cell phones & accessories
- ✓ Small non-working electronics

Household Hazardous Waste

- ✓ Non-empty aerosol cans
- ✓ Glues & adhesives
- ✓ Household cleaners
- ✓ Mercury thermometers
- ✓ Nail polish & remover
- ✓ Oil & latex paints
- ✓ Pharmaceuticals
- ✓ Solvents
- ✓ Syringes (containerized)
- ✓ Car fluids
- ✓ Unknown substances

The University of California has a goal to reduce waste 25% by 2025, 50% by 2030, and divert 90% of all waste from the landfill. Help UC Davis achieve this goal and reduce, reuse, & sort your waste!